William Carey is a name but more than just a name, it is a symbol the school represents. A symbol of Christian living which we as the students and faculty of William Carey College try to reinforce. Without this symbol Carey College would not be the distinctive school that it is today.

This year more than ever we feel the students have responded to this symbol of Christian living and are trying to hold high this ideal in their individual lives as well as in classroom situations and all areas of campus living, including New Orleans and the Coast Campus. We are one—in Christian love.

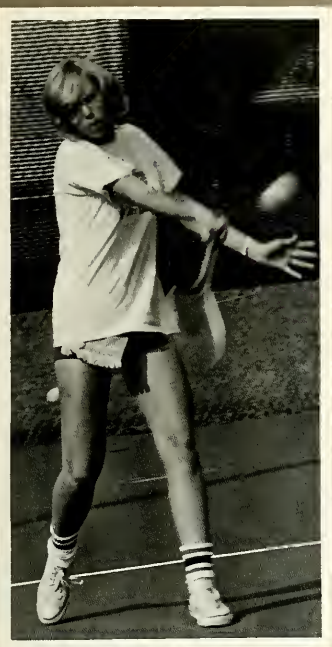

Carey on the Coast

This life can be lived in many different ways by many different people who all have the same ideas in mind to be brought together through love.

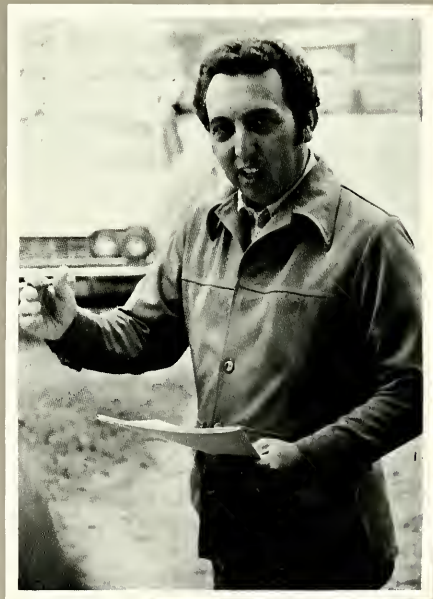

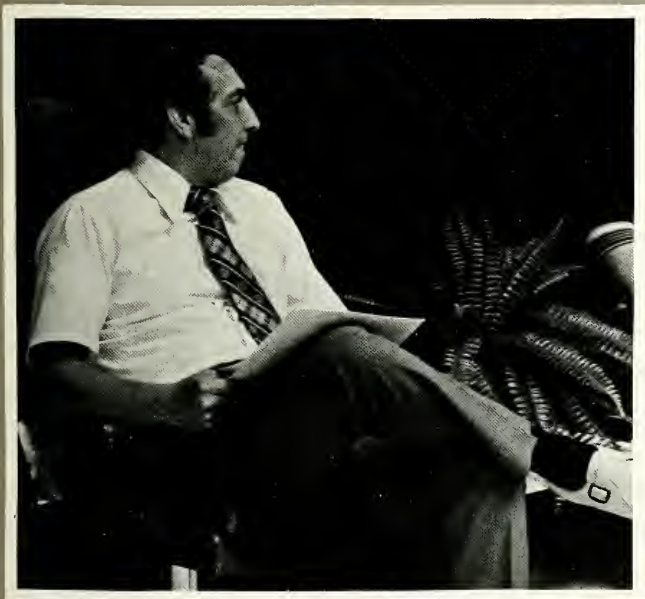

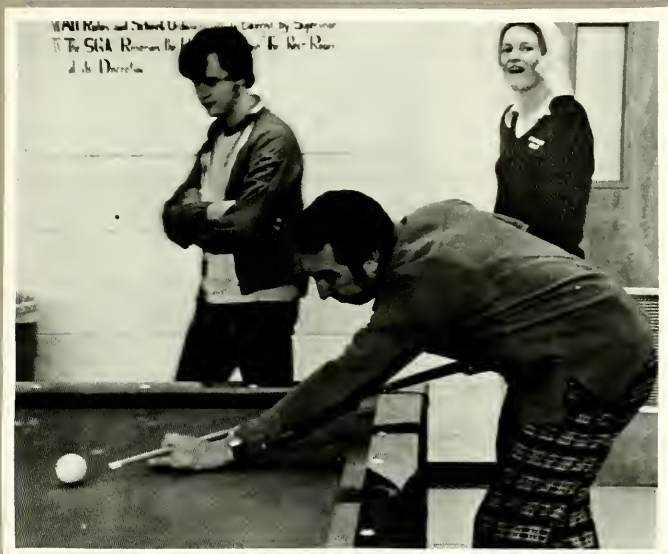

Dedication

When one thinks of the personality of a Christian, he thinks first of the characteristic of love. Love, as an inherent trait, of a person, is reflected as he walks, shares, and labors with all students, faculty and mankind. One who epitomizes this ideal of Christian love in times of fellowship, in times of trial, in times of sorrow, and in times of making important decisions is the one we are proud to honor. We dedicate the 1977 Crusader to Dr. Jerry Oswald, Vice-President of Student Affairs. Thank you Dr. Oswald for being a loving, caring Christian.

Miss Mississippi

WELCOME HOME!!
BOBBYE

Yes! Our Miss Carey became Miss Mississippi this past summer when she participated in the State Pageant. It was an honor for both William Carey College and Bobbye Wood to be our Miss Mississippi at the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City. Bobbye, we are proud of you because you represented the finest in Christian womanhood as you walked with the top forty-nine beauties of our nation.

What would a college be without those outstanding people that make each day of our lives so special? Not only scholarship but personality makes each of these individuals glow with that certain something that everyone doesn't have. The heights that the student reaches in the areas of intelligence and personal actions cannot be credited to the student alone but also to the guidance from parents, teachers, and God. These next pages serve as a tribute to those students who are the sunshine of our lives at William Carey College.

A faculty and administration committee selected to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges those who showed academic achievement, leadership ability, and a willingness to serve their college and community. This district honor may serve to identify those who should become the religious and community leaders of our nation.

Miss Carey 1976

Dorothy Roberts was first runner up in the 1976 Miss Carey Pageant. She began her reign as Miss Carey at the beginning of the fall semester and will continue to fulfill this role until the 1977 Miss Carey Pageant. Our praises ring forth in appreciation for the beautiful, gracious Miss Carey.

Miss Carey College 1977

Suzanne Freeman was crowned Miss Carey College 1977 at the annual pageant held each year in February. Miss Freeman will go to Vicksburg in July to represent Carey College in the Miss Mississippi Pageant.

Varied activities for changes of pace allow the students to work to the best of their ability. The theatre department provides several productions throughout the year to bring fantasy, drama, and comedy to students. The student affairs office organizes other activities such as, car rallies, concerts, the Miss Carey Pageant and entertainment at banquets to add variety to the students busy lives.

Talent is plentiful on this small campus and everyone who wishes may have a chance to express him or herself. The laughter, cheers, and applause of the students show their interest and appreciation for these bright spots intermingled with the usual school work.

Ah! This is education with entertainment.

Entertainment

Summer Showcase No.1 "Encore"

William Carey College, on its main campus in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, has a very unusual summer theatre program. It is called Carey Summer Showcase and operates as a dinner theatre. The endeavor has been called "south Mississippi's unique dinner theatre." Its uniqueness is attributed to several factors. First, instead of students paying a fee to participate as is customary in many college summer theatres, each member of the company is paid a stipend. Secondly, the program showcases the writing talents, as well as the performing abilities, of young people. Showcase was begun in 1975. Each of the two seasons to date has featured a new, original musical written by students. The second show each season is a musical revue.

In the 1976 company, Jay Rogers and Keith Thompson were responsible for writing the book and lyrics for their new musical, Brass. Thompson also directed the music while Rogers served as costumer. In addition, both performed.

There are nine student members of the company and three faculty members. With the limited number of persons in the group, those participating receive a wide range of experience, from waiting tables to appearing on stage. Auditions, held in the spring, are open to any person who is at least eighteen years of age.

Summer Showcase No.2 "Brass"

Halloween Carnival

Gales of laughter, spine-tingling screams, and goblins of all kinds dominated the 1976 Halloween Carnival. Fun was had by all as they participated in the club sponsored booths, SGA races, and the theatre's haunted house. The haunted house seemed to dominate the evening in its eerie setting of Johnson Hall attic. All goblins, spooks, and monsters along with students had an exciting, thrill-filled time.

Talent Show

This year's talent show was a very enjoyable time for everyone. Some of the talents displayed were acting, singing, and playing the piano and guitar. The winners this year were Keith Thompson, for first place, Tommy Register and Scott Lee tied for second place, and the third place winner was Suzanne Freeman. Cash prizes made winning even more exciting for the leaders.

Thanksgiving Banquet

This year's Thanksgiving dinner was welcomed by faculty and students because it was the first all-campus event of its kind for the Carey family. Happy faculty, administration, and staff served students a traditional turkey and dressing feast.

Tommy Register, Chuck Endsley, and Keith Thompson provided a musical accompainment to a fashion show presented by the Home Economics Department. Gwynn Kilgore read the commentary on fashions while Billy Browning and Steve Ward escorted the well-dressed fashion models.

This prelude to the first class break for 1976 was an enjoyable evening.

The holiday spirit brought students, faculty, and staff together for the annual Christmas banquet. While enjoying an extra tasty dinner, students were entertained by the stage band, a Miss Cutie Pageant (featuring the male faculty), songs sung by Miss Mississippi, Bobbye Wood, and Dr. Noonkester's daughter Lila, and everyone's favorites Santa and his wife. The spirit of Christmas soon filled everyone's hearts.

Christmas Banquet

Miss Carey Pageant

This year's Miss Carey Pageant was excellent. There were nine participants whose talents ranged from dancing, oral reading, singing and piano solos.

Miss Carey 1976, Dorothy Roberts was the mistress of ceremonies. Miss Mississippi, our own Bobbye Wood, entertained the audience. Another important part of the exciting program was The Carey Company who did a superb job.

The winners for this year were: Fern Colletti, fourth alternate; Mary Ann Ginn, third alternate; Lori Kinnison, second alternate; Denise Holloman, first alternate; and Suzanne Freeman, Miss Carey.

The Autumn Garden

The first production of the Serampore Players for the 1976-77 school year was The Autumn Garden by Lillian Hellman. The three-act drama had an involved plot that kept the audience wondering what would happen next. The plot hinged on the homecoming of a local artist with his wife and the complications that resulted. The cast of twelve presented the 1940's play realistically, and the audience became absorbed with the enticing story.

The Butterfly That Blushed

The Christmas production presented by the Serampore Players was the sparkling musical fantasy The Butterfly That Blushed by Joseph Golden. The cast, consisting of eight butterflies, an ant, a grasshopper, and two humans, adequately exhibited the wonderful message that it is not how you look on the outside that matters but how you feel on the inside. The cast sang and danced their way into the hearts of the audience. The show truly expressed the warmth and love present in the most wonderful of holiday seasons.

BSU Activities

Emerson quoted, "March without people and you march into night." Without friends no one would choose to live because, there is so much more to life than just existing. To love and be loved is the greatest happiness of existence. And this small college is growing fast because of this love and friendship intertwined to fortify every aspect of campus life.

The crack of the bat across the baseball diamond, the thump of the basketball on the court floor, and the cheers of the crowd in the stands added together create an air of excitement in the sports world. William Carey College has a competitive spirit that shows up not only in academics but the sports arena as well. The striving for achievement is not dampened with a defeat. The never ending pulse inside each athlete continues during every game. The quieter beat of the presence of the Lord in each heart combines with the athletic ability to allow the best performance of each player.

The main reason students come to college is to prepare through study for a career of their choice. The administration, faculty, and staff of the college must build a good relationship with each student so anxiety during exams and occasional pressures of classwork will not steer the student from his original goal.

At William Carey the atmosphere of good Christian fellowship shines through the actions of the instructors, instilling a sense of encouragement and a renewed thirst for knowledge within the pupil. Teachers may seem misunderstanding and harsh at times, but as far as we are concerned, it is only as they strive for the best in us. We present the faculty and staff of the 1976-1977 school year in hopes that our memories of them will live on as well as the knowledge and assistance that we have received from them.

Leadership

The Real Adventure of Life

A great English doctor and a world famous preacher have declared in word and in deed my challenge to the Carey student in 1977. Wilfred Grenfell wrote: "Feeble and devious as my own footsteps have been since my decision to follow Christ, I believe more than ever that this is the only real adventure of life The decision and the endeavor to follow Christ does for men what nothing else on earth can do for them."

A famous preacher used to say he would have been pleased to have blown the bellows for Handel, to have picked up the fallen brush for Michelangelo, to have carried Shakespeare's bag. He concluded by declaring: "If men count it an honor to do some humble service for the world's great heroes, what distinction is to be found in the opportunity of serving the Saviour of men."

Some people think that if you get through your freshman year of college with fair grades you're on your way to success. However, we at Carey feel that if you get through registration without flunking you have accomplished quite a task!

After registration is over and classes have begun, it becomes clear that, as Carey students, our purpose is not only to put our best into our classes but also to reach out to one another in Christian love. This learning is possible because we see acts of kindness on this campus ... warm smiles and ready helpfulness shown by the students, as well as the faculty and staff.

The overall Christian spirit makes us, the Carey family, one in the bond of Christ's love.

Philippians 4:13 for I can do everything God asks me to with the help of Christ who gives me the strength and power.
